14. GM's ramble

All set for the 20th season of the Rosedale Open! This is probably the most unusual season start to date, as we welcome 24 clubs from the Nightmare League to join us. There were just 19 signed up, but some managers offered to bring additional clubs to make up the numbers. Thank you for that!

I gave things some thought, and figured the fairest would be as follows:

The Premiership is unaffected. The 12 clubs who would've constituted the Premiership without a merger will still be the Premiership for the coming season. The Nightmare League clubs will have to prove themselves first.

The clubs that would otherwise have played in the Lexington League will be placed in one of two "Division 1", and the clubs that would otherwise have played in the Berkeley Conference will be placed in one of two "Division 2". The Nightmare League clubs will be distributed in Divisions 1 and 2 according to how they fared in their last Nightmare League season.

I considered converting to five divisions on top of each other from season 21 onwards, but four promotions is a long time from bottom to top and vice versa. Therefore I've decided, at least for this season, that there will be three promotions and three relegations from each league as usual - with the exception of the Premiership, which will relegate six(!) teams, and the division 2 leagues, which will relegate one to the conference league.

To make things as fair as possible, distribution within the same level isn't random; when possible, teams of the same manager are kept separate, and the two leagues were made as equal in strength as possible.

For those so inclined, there is a chatgroup for the game. It doesn't have a very high volume - it hits a little peak now and then when a thread pops up, but it doesn't add significantly to your mail volume. It's a yahooogroup called rosedaleopen - you can join it from the homepage.

The home advantage is 6 VP. In the next issue, rounds 1 and 2 will be played. In addition, the first round of the Rosedale Knockout will take place.

The deadline for issue 2 is Friday, October 8, at 2130 CET.

I will send out the teams soon.
