1. Introduction

Hi all and welcome to the new round of Rosedale Open!

A significant delay this time, but we've been so punctual earlier in the year that there's no problem finishing the 2018 season within 2018. As usual, there will not be any holiday deadlines.

The early deadline for issue 12 is Friday November 23, at 21:30 CET. It's always Fridays at 21:30 CET.

The deadline for issue 12 is Friday November 30, at 21:30 CET. It's always Fridays at 21:30 CET.

Publication date for issue 12 is Wednesday December 12. It might be out sooner.

If you have heard nothing by the publication date, feel free to get in touch to check up on it.

Orders that reach me before the early deadline clearly marked «final» waive your chance to change them, in return for a cash bonus of 20 kKj to your club.

Next issue, you send orders for:

- * match days 21 and 22 in the league (see section 12)
- * the Rosedale Knockout final (see section 13)

This round, the home advantage remains 9 VP. The home team is listed first in the league schedule. All cup games are on neutral field (no home advantage).

In addition, as always, you send coaching. Optionally, you can also discover talents and buy/sell players.

By the time you read this, I have already sent out your teams.

Jed Stone, Frillby United:

«From the Sports Section:- LONGDALE COURIER - Skelsthorpe

In 1492 the prize pig at Wertals farm escaped. Chased by the farmer and his two sons it rampaged through the village evading all attempts to capture it till it reached the mill pond at the far side of the village. It had been a hot summer and the pond had dried down to a sea of mud. The pig dived into the mud pool followed by half the village lads. That, so legend has it, was the start of Skelsthorpe annual 'Pig Ball' Fair. Over the years it has mellowed down to traditional country village fair opened by the vicar or a local dignitary, Originally the opening involved two teams, one representing the pig and the other the Wertals family racing to the village green to climb a greasy pole to dislodge a pigs bladder that was resting on top and carry it to the mill pond. The one who took it into the pond was declared 'King Pig' and was much celebrated through out the day. Legend leaves no clue as to how or why a greasy pole got involved. Probably it just added to the fun.

The first Frillby v Slartibartfast match was celebrated by a 'Mad Hatter's Tea Party'. To celebrate the return match 'The Mob' decided to revive the traditional opening race greasy pole and all. The ten best runners from The Mob were matched against the ten best runners from the Slarty boys. They started at the site of Wertals farm and raced for the village green and the greasy pole. The other supporters lined the route or crowded around the village green to watch the fun. The pole defeated the first twelve runners to reach it. None got more than three metres up before the goose grease and the ankle grabbing opposition from below brought them back to the ground. Eventually the two teams formed up on either side of the pole to form a human pyramids in an attempt to reach the bowl containing the football that rested on the top of the pole. One of the Slarty boys reached it first and heaved it into the crowd of Slarty watchers on. For the next half hour the ball flew back and forth. Into the trees that ringed the green. Onto the roof of Watson's garage. Into the beer garden of the Dog and Duck each time followed by a press of supporters. Anyone who got near it grabbed it and threw it in the general direction of the mill pond. Eventually, more by accident than design it rolled into Mill lane and was thrown, kicked or punched down to the pond where three Slarty boys fell on it and rolled together into the water. They were duly declared 'Pig Kings' and everyone settled down for a beverage provided by the local WI's and the staff of the D and G.

The local school was opened to provide showers and changing facilities for those in need before everyone went off to Twixby Lane to watch the match. Once again the home team won, and both teams left the pitch to a standing ovation.

It is understood that the Maglithian physiologists who have been studying the phenomenon are still totally baffled by the behaviour of the human organism known as 'football fans'.»
