Michael Hellige, Fantasy Finale: «Merry christmas and a happy new year!!»

Jed Stone, Frillby United: «The Curse of FOXWOOD:- Part 2

Down the years misfortune (or the curse depending on your point of view) has followed Foxwood. Between 1873 when 'mad Gladys' the Earl's mother died, to 1910 the Foxwood pitch was flooded 5 times, grubbed up by a herd of pigs looking for truffles twice, and ravaged by moles tunnelling underneath it and throwing up vast mounds of earth...constantly. The moles became such a problem that the Erst Brothers, a team of three 'mole hunters', were eventually, permanently employed by the Club to deal with the mole problem. Despite their best efforts, however, the moles refused to leave the area. (Strangely enough their sister, Phyliss, bred moles to make moleskin gloves out of their fur...but that's probably another story.) Meanwhile the curse moved on. In 1912 Ernest Wiseman, (the Manager), Bob Coxhill (The trainer) and five of the team were invited to attend the maiden voyage of the Titanic. All failed to return! During the First World War the short-sighted pilot of a Zeppelin, mistook the north stand for a factory and carefully dropped its bombs on it. During the Second World War the pitch was mistaken for 'Foxwood air field', and was peppered with bombs, which destroyed the pitch completely but also killed off the mole colony that lived beneath it...(and put the descendants of the Erst Brothers out of work...for a month. - Their cousin had taken over the Mole breeding business!) Since the end of the war the curse seems to have become confined to bad results on the pitch. This has led to the theory that a curse is like stretched elastic. The further in the past the placing of the curse becomes, the more likely it is that it will finally be stretched so fine it will snap and disappear. If that happened then Foxwood may become a 'proper', successful football team at last.»

13. Rosedale Knockout quarter final results

Botanica - Stars 2 : 1
 Scorers: Dahlia (66., 77.) Pollux (60.)
 Booked: Echeveria, Senecio Adnan Haidar
 Botanica put up a good fight, but the opponents from the top flight was simply too strong for them.

Lake Tanganyika - Serial Killers 3 : 4 a.p. (1 : 1 ot., 1 : 1)
 Scorers: Goudvis (49.) Jimmy Maketta (86.)
 Booked: Petrotilapia ***---
 After the first Premiership club got ready for the semi finals, Lake Tanganyika showed that they're not unbeatable by being significantly stronger through normal play. However, Jimmy Maketta managed an equaliser for Serial Killers, and they won out in the end, on penalties.

FC Asskickers - Formula 1 Legends 1 : 0
 Scorers: Lex Luger (13.) ***---
 Booked: --- Kimi Raikkonen
 Another Championship team managed an upper hand against a Premiership side, but FC Asskickers were luckier and are ready for the semis.

Currents of Space - Frock Frogs 5 : 2
 Scorers: Comporellon (4., 68.), Far Star (27., 33.), Speaker-to-animals (65.)
 Froskelaar (29.), Mario (48.)
 Booked: --- Henriette, Mario, Rumpetroll
 The scoreline was overstated, but here the Premiership team was indeed stronger. So that's four teams from the top flight as the final four!

Teams not currently part of the league system are now conference league teams with 60 VP. All cup games are played on neutral field, thus neither team will have a home advantage.

14. GM's ramble

(for the main information, refer to the Introduction)

The luck statistics so far:

Premiership: Feyenoord are now luckiest, while Currents of Space remain unluckiest. In fact, if the world was fair, there'd be six clubs within two points at the top...

Championship: Night Owls are luckiest, while Stars keep up being unlucky.

Division 1: ENPS overtake Oaks as luckiest, while The Scientists remain unluckiest.

Division 2: Cosmopolitan remain luckiest, while Sjololaden BK are now unluckiest.

Division 3: Frillby United are still most fortunate, while Foxwood City still have been most unlucky. The division is much more even than it looks, as all teams except Frillby on the lower half have been unlucky so far.
