2. Broadcast messages

Jed Stone, Frillby United:

«From Sports Section:- LONGDALE COURIER â€ Skelsthorpe

Over the years Peter Scregland (England Manager) has made some strange choices when it comes to finding replacements for injured players, but the inclusion of Naldiaz Juanda the Insomniacs striker, in the squad to face Germany in the friendly fixture in three weeks time is unusually strange. I can only think he was focusing on Juanda's showing against the Frock Frogs when he scored five wonderful goals. It was an excellent performance but perhaps he missed the match the following week against Frillby when he only scored a single goal. That goal was a gift as an otherwise immaculate defence tripped over its own feet and left an opening the size of a barn door for him to slice the ball into! He may be an excellent third division player but in terms of high scorers he lies fifth in the divisions Scorer's List with 8 goals to his credit, somewhat behind Mrs Kapelain and Trin Tragula of Slartibartfarst FC who jointly top the table with 18 goals each. As the only third division player included in the squad he will feel out of place and probably outclassed by his fellow team mates never mind the Internationally renowned defensive squad he will be facing. I don't doubt Scregland's capability as England's Manager but I do think that some of his 'out-the-bag' choices for the team belong in the realm of 'Fantasy Football' rather than a real International Game be it a friendly fixture or not.»

Deepak Mohoni, Slartibartfast FC:

«Slartibartfast FC are pleased to announce that the FA has dropped all charges of match-fixing against them following what were considered suspicious scorelines - with the team scoring 22 goals in one match, only to let in 11 in the next. The testimony of the bartender of the neighbourhood pub clinched the issue.

It appears that the manager had one Pan Galactic Gargle Blaster too many just before the game, and had instructed the goalkeeper to surprise the opponents by embarking on frequent and random solo runs into the opponent's half at random intervals, with or without possession of the ball.»

Henry Springer, Tamriel Athletic: «Last time, I got another sweeper. There are more than enough in my team, so if anybody is interested in getting a S V 9, please let me know. I do have an interesting club to get your older sweeper as well, if needed.»

3. Apprentices discovered
