2. Broadcast messages

Jed Stone, Frillby United:

«From Sports Section:- LONGDALE COURIER - Skelsthorpe

A spokesperson for Riddifield hospital announced today that the eight comatose patients thought to be victims of 'Scrazz' were not members of the Slartybartfarst FC Fan Club as was first thought. They were, in fact members of RAB (Real Ale Boys) a local drinking group who brew and drink traditional ales. They had been involved in a drinking Gargle Blasters competition with a group of Slartybartfast Fans and lost. Inspector Patrick of the Riddifield police said that, 'No charges will be brought against anyone involved in the incident. If the RAB lads were stupid enough to take on the Slarty fans in a drinking competition they had only themselves to blame for what befell them. '

The hospital has said that 'Get Well Soon ' cards were sent to the victims by the Slartybartfarst Fan Club. In a corresponding goodwill gesture the RAB lads hung a 'Get Well ' banner opposite the gates of Beeblebrox Stadium following the team's defeat 1 - 0 by Foxwood City.»
