Jed Stone, Frillby United:

«From the Sports Section:- LONGDALE COURIER - Skelsthorpe

Trupps Football cards cover every team from the Third Division to the Premiership which amounts to some 850 cards to be collected by the enthusiastic collectors (Idiots). Most cards are sold in packs of five obtainable at any newsagents and the better class of pub. However, it is well known in the world of Football Card collector that Trupps do not issue a complete season's set of cards immediately. A small randomly selected number of cards are not issued until late in the season and they do not appear in the standard packs. They can only be found lurking in the packaging of some alien unrelated product. Last season they first appeared in a pack of pork sausages bought at Brozstar the Butchers in down town Foxlayton. Once the word got out there was such a country wide rush to buy packs of pork sausages that the industry couldn't keep up and in many areas there was a 'sausage famine'.

Though it is well known that the 'Golden Ones' are not released until mid season a rumour that a pack had been found in Mottishaws Bakery in a bag of bagels resulted in a mob of eager 'Idiots' descending on the bakery to search for the non-existent cards. Fortunately Mrs Henshaw (Chair person of the local WI) armed with a French Baguette and a cheese scone held the mob at bay until the police arrived to restore order. The rumour, it is believed, was started by known prankster Monsol Dirk, renown as the only Slartybartfast supporter to be banned from the groups own pub, 'The Bablefish', for behaviour unbecoming a Slarty fan. He drank a cup of tearilla!»

 There was a pause in play near the halftime break when Tessa bit into the ball and wouldn't let go, and it wasn't until Daisy came around to bark some sense into her that play could continue. However, the home side was in disarray for a few moments, and Gladstone Gander capitalised by scoring a nice winning goal.

 An even match with a deserved point for each club.
