Jed Stone, Frillby United:

« From the Sports Section:- LONGDALE COURIER - Skelsthorpe

Rumour, suspicion and speculation have always been rife in the National Leagues since they were formed some eighty years ago. Different teams have come under the quizzical gaze of rumour mongers at different times for numerous reasons. A few rumours find their way in letter form onto the desk of Patrick McGullan Chairman of the N.L.B.C. (National Leagues Board of Control) who are the guardians of our National game. Most are formed into paper planes, are assigned the logo of 'rubbish' and fly into the nearest bin. The latest, however, is causing some slight concern among the board members. An anonymous rumour donor has claimed that Slartibartfast is fielding illegal players. Though names are not named the letter says that an eight armed Octoagen and a Slavalian Speed Slug disguised as standard humanoid players by new technology devised on a quiet planet to the east of Ursa Minor. regularly play for the team. Normally such accusations would be immediately assigned to the bin but it is a well known fact that Zaphod Beeblebrox, the Chairman of Slartibartfast is a Betelgeusian and a friend of Poet Master Grunthos the Flatulent while their coach is Marvin the Paranoid Android claims to have spent much of eternity as a car-park attendant at Milliways, the Restaurant at the End of the Universe. The rules of the game as laid out by the N.L.B.C. do not make the use of alien players and alien technology illegal but when they were drawn up many moons ago space travel was confined to imaginative fiction. Should the rule book be rewritten? Would banning aliens result in equal rights law suits and, more importantly do Octoagens and Slavalian Speed Slugs actually understand the offside rule?»

Scorers: Carl Moham (67.) ***---
Booked: --- ***Mark Webber
A rather slow match where Frillby United had complete control, and managed a winning goal in the middle of the second half. That means still a perfect home record this season!
