If issue 11 is out before December 24, the deadlines for issue 12 will be January 3 and 10. If issue 11 is out after that, but before the publication date, the deadlines for issue 12 will be Januar 10 and 17.

This round, the home advantage increases to 9 VP. The home team is listed first in the league schedule. All cup games are on neutral field (no home advantage).

In addition, as always, you send coaching. Optionally, you can also discover talents and buy/sell players.

Orders that reach me before the early deadline clearly marked «final» waive your chance to change them, in return for a cash bonus of 20 kKj to your club. Optionally, you can let me know your orders are «always final» - an option for those of you who never change your orders anyway.

By the time you read this, I have already sent out your teams. If you haven't received them by the day after the publication, please get in touch.

Jed Stone, Frillby United:

«Agnas Catchpole was a seasoned member of the Skelsthorpe WI. She had been but a bairn of a few weeks old when her mother had popped her in the pram and strolled off to a WI meeting. When she was six her great Gran Gertrude had given her a miniature rolling pin and taught her how to whack the ankles and toes of offending football supporters to keep them in line. At fourteen she was enrolled as the Skelsthorpe WI mascot and was allowed to carry the gold ladle with attached tea towel on ceremonial occasions like Cup Ties. At eighteen she was officially enrolled into the WI and led the charge that cleared the field when the visiting Valiant City fans got a little uppity and invaded the pitch when Old Stan red carded their captain for something he obviously didn't do. Now at the grand age of thirty-five she was pack leader of the Tea-Bags the elite WI troop responsible for the good conduct of the Slarty Boys when a match was in progress. With her fifteen woman troop she faced the crowd scanning them for trouble spots. Stamping it out before it started. (She could hit an offender standing right at the back of the stands with a thrown rolling pin every time.) Her only regret was she had no idea what all the fuss was all about. Thirty odd years standing at football matches and she had no idea what the Offside rule looked like. »
